Some More Announcements

Hsuan-Tien Lin

Dept. of CSIE, NTU

OOP Class, March 1-2, 2010

About Homework

- to be announced on Thursday (usually, Wednesday night)
- due Thursday noon after two weeks (usually)
- fully graded ten days later (i.e., after one class)

- TAs would team up for TA hours
- three sections (to be announced soon) that you can choose
- or catch any TAs when they have the time

About Exams

- midterm: programming without a compiler :-)
  —two classes together, time to be announced after gathering constraints
- final: tentatively, also programming without a compiler
  —unless we find a really interesting final project
